

Purchase Agreement & Health Guarantee:

Congratulations! You are embarking on a new journey with a beautiful Doodle puppy. We ask that you love and accept this puppy into your home as a family member. The following agreement is between _____, hereafter referred to as “Breeder” and _____ hereafter referred to as “Buyer” for the sale and purchase of one Goldendoodle/ Bernedoodle puppy. This contract is not transferable and only applies to the person listed as the Buyer in this agreement.

Breeder’s Agreement:

The Breeder guarantees that before the Buyer takes possession of the puppy, it will be examined by a licensed veterinarian (usually 7 weeks of age) and deemed in good health. The breeder guarantees the sire and dam of the puppy have been health tested, and all information regarding the parent’s health testing on the website is true and accurate. The Breeder agrees that said dogs have passed health testing prior to breeding. The Breeder guarantees that all dogs under Vandenbark Doodles are raised in an “in-home” environment. The breeder does not raise dogs in kennels. The Breeder will be available to the buyer to give support and advice for the lifetime of the puppy. Please email vandenbarkgoldendoodles@outlook.com if ever the buyer should need such support. We will make every effort to reply as soon as possible.

72-Hour Guarantee

This Doodle puppy is guaranteed to be in good health at the time of pick up, delivery, or shipment (before shipment.) The Breeder also gives a 72-hour health guarantee against life-threatening illnesses. The Buyer is encouraged to take the puppy to a licensed Veterinarian to have it examined (at Buyers cost) within 72 hours or the guarantee is void. If the puppy is found to have a pre-existing or life-threatening problem, the Buyer must notify the Breeder at once (within the 72-hour period) with the following information:

- 1) Name, address and phone number of the licensed Veterinarian who examined the puppy.
- 2) The diagnosis and all medical records.
- 3) If the puppy dies in the Buyer's care, proof of death is required (autopsy if needed).

The Buyer needs to make arrangements to return the puppy to the Breeder (at Buyers cost) within 48 hours from the date of diagnosis with the requested information. The Breeder will then take the puppy to their veterinarian and if the same life-threatening illness is confirmed or death occurs as a result of a life-threatening illness, the Buyer is eligible for one of the following two options:

Option 1

A refund of the paid price of your puppy with the return of the original puppy within 48 hours of examination. This excludes all delivery/shipping costs.

OR

Option 2

A replacement puppy from the next available litter (delivery/shipping costs not included) with the return of the original puppy within 48 hours of examination.

If it is found that the puppy does not have a life-threatening illness, the Buyer may take the puppy back and pay all related Veterinarian costs. If the Buyer declines to take the puppy back, no refund will be given. The Breeder is not responsible for associated changes which may occur with moving a puppy to a new home: mental stress, low blood sugar, loose stools or coccidia, which can be caused by stress and can develop within hours in transport and has nothing to do with good or bad breeding. The Breeder agrees to be available for guidance in transitioning the puppy to its new home should any of the above occur. The puppy is not guaranteed against diseases such as Parvovirus, Distemper, Adenovirus, Parainfluenza, Coronavirus, Leptospirosis, Bordetella and Lyme Disease. It is the new owner's responsibility to stay up to date with the puppy's vaccinations. It is also important to keep your puppy away from public areas until the full puppy vaccination series is complete. The Buyer agrees to not put puppy on public ground (such as a park, a street with high foot traffic, beach, lake, vet clinic, sport field, etc.) before the completion of the puppy vaccination series. If travel of the puppy is needed, pet carriers are a good option. An 8-week-old puppy who has had age appropriate vaccinations can still catch a contagious disease, and most likely will catch it if around a dog that suffers from the disease. When visiting your vet, always keep the puppy in a pet carrier. Please note that it is wise to be extremely caution of where you allow your puppy to walk, for up to 2 weeks after the last puppy vaccination. Vaccinations can take a couple weeks in the body before your puppy is fully protected. This guarantee does not apply to whipworm, roundworm, hookworm, tapeworm, coccidia, giardia, bladder infections, ear infections, urinary tract infections, undescended testicle(s) or hernias as all the above aforementioned can be common in puppies and do not affect the longevity or long-term quality of life of the puppy. The Buyer agrees that this guarantee does not cover change of mind circumstances.

24-Month Health Guarantee

The Breeder agrees to a 2-year (24 month) health guarantee which covers Hip Dysplasia, eye diseases and genetic diseases that would severely affect the dog's life. The diagnosis would have to be made before the dog's 2-year birthday. The Breeder requires all medical proof (X-rays, blood work and records) of this diagnosis from the Buyers certified Veterinarian to validate the claims of the disabling genetic disease. In addition, the documented evidence should include a statement by the Buyers certified Veterinarian, that the defect is unquestionably a hereditary defect that could not have been in any way caused by environmental factors. The Buyer must get the approval of the Breeder before any surgery or treatments are to be done, otherwise this guarantee is void. Examination and testing are at the Buyer's expense and must be done by OFA or Pennhip for Hip Dysplasia and found to have a rating of moderate to severe hip dysplasia, and AVCO certified Veterinarian for PRA (Progressive Retinal Atrophy). The above testing and examinations are all at the Buyers expense. The Buyer understands the Breeder has the right to a second opinion. NOTE: If the dog is re-homed, euthanized, or disposed of in any other way, without the Breeders consent or a second opinion from the Breeders Veterinarian, the Buyer has voided this guarantee. A voided guarantee means the Buyer is no longer eligible to receive a replacement puppy or financial compensation. The Breeder agrees that should the life altering diagnosis be confirmed, then the Buyer is eligible for one of the following options:

Option 1:

The breeder will refund up to 50% of the original purchase price of the puppy toward specialist recommended treatment. The Buyer must first provide proof of Veterinary expenses and a copy of a paid invoice before reimbursement is provided. Reimbursement will not exceed 50% of original purchase price for treatment reimbursement. The Buyer is never required to return their dog in this situation.

OR

Option 2:

The Breeder offers a replacement puppy from the next available litter. The Buyer is never required to return the original dog in this situation. If the dog is overweight, underweight or neglected, this guarantee becomes void. Please note that if the condition was caused by an injury from training, play or any other activity: the guarantee becomes void. We recommend that you do not allow your puppy to do extensive running, jumping off of high things, or extremely hard play before 2 years of age. A dog's body is still growing and shifting up until age 2 and the above activates can effect the way their body will be formed.

The Breeder will not be held responsible for the illness or death of any dog which is found injured due to neglect, malnourishment, dehydration, accident related, or abused; that could have been prevented and treated by the dog's owner.
